

Fiction & Travel in Indochina

Marshall Cavendish

Travel in Laos, Cambodia & Vietnam

Phil Karber knew nothing about Indochina until 1968 when his platoon entered the Vietnam conflict. This book follows his voyage in 2002 as he explores and retraces earlier trips through Vietnam, Laos & Cambodia. This is a modern travelogue that echoes with the recent past and paints a graphic picture of the Indochinese present.

Ages adult

336 pages 14x22cm paperback 2006
A$ 27.95 rrp NZ$ 31.95 rrp

The Indochina Chronicles

Phil Karber 9812610367

also available

Karim Raslan's narratives on politics, people, art & culture paint entertaining and enlightening pictures of SEAsia

Ages adult

236 pages 14x22cm paperback 2002
A$ 15.95 rrp NZ$ 19.95 rrp

Journeys Through South East Asia

Karim Raslan 981232397X

Tan Wee Cheng goes places we only dream about - this book is a romp around the world - travel & journalism at its best!

Ages adult

236 pages 14x22cm paperback 2005
A$ 15.95 rrp NZ$ 19.95 rrp

The Greenland Seal Hunter

Tan Wee Cheng 9812328904

Thai-Cambodia

Minfong Ho's novels capture the courage, hardships, love & tragedies of a generation forced to flee the Cambodian war. Her books have won many awards for teen literature.

Ages teen -adult

200 pages 13x20cm paperback 2006 reissue
A$ 14.95 rrp NZ$ 16.95 rrp

Rice Without Rain

Minfong Ho 9812329404

The Clay Marble

Minfong Ho 9812329323

